

I am in support of the petition. Amateur radios operators should not be required to learn an operating mode they do not wish to use.